

Hosts Needed

The success of this unique event depends on hosts and hostesses joining in to help guarantee that for the seventeenth year, Austinites living with HIV will have a place to turn when they face a financial emergency. PLEASE JOIN US.

What does a host/hostess do?

- Make a $ Contribution which will help cover costs of the event. If there is host/hostess money left over, it will go to the Emergency Fund along with 100% of every dollar guests spend. See registration form for Host levels.
- Volunteer. Pitch in for an hour or two before, during or after the event.
- Help sell tickets -- 10 or more -- before the event. This not only guarantees the fund raising success, but also puts your face on the event and makes people want to come.

How do I become a host/hostess?

Please mail your check payable to AIDS Services of Austin along with the Host Registration Form and send to:

Lew Aldridge, 609 Texas Avenue, Austin, TX 78705

OR

Frank Garrahan, 12820 Withers Way, Austin, TX 78727

We will mail 10 tickets to sell and set up your volunteer slot. For more information email arterotica@octopusclub.org or call Lew at 293-1250 or Frank at 294-8980. Please contact us ASAP so we can get materials to you.

What if I want to help but can't be a host?

Every Octopus Club event is put on entirely by volunteers. If you can't be a host, you can help by serving on one of the committees working on the event (décor, tickets, art acquisition, program, food and beverage, entertainment, auctionadministration) or volunteer at the event.

The Octopus Club puts on events - large and small - to raise money for the AIDS Emergency Assistance Fund. 100% of every dollar donated at any event goes directly to people living with HIV/AIDS in times of financial crisis.
